

RESEARCH PARTICIPANTS NEEDED

human brain control of locomotion lab

The Human Brain Control of Locomotion laboratory (HBCL) is conducting a research project that will help us understand how our brain controls our legs.

Can I participate?

You are eligible if you are:

- Healthy
  - Between 18 to 45 years old
  - Right hand dominant
- .....

Where will it take place?

At the HBCL laboratory in Currie Gymnasium at 475 Pine Ave W.

.....

How long will it take?

The study consists in 4 visits of 2 hours each.

For more information please contact:

Alejandra Martínez
email: alejandra.martinez2@mail.mcgill.ca
tel: (514) 809 5918

What will I do?

Painless magnetic stimulation will be applied on your skull and you will be asked to complete a series of questionnaires.

This study was approved by the McGill Faculty of Medicine IRB

